NORTHERN NEW MEXICO COLLEGE PRESENTS:
CULTURE DAY 2014
FEATURING: NATIVE ROOTS

The American Indian Student Organization and the Northern Pueblos Institute, in collaboration with Northern New Mexico College Student Senate and Student Life Activities Center are proud to present Culture Day 2014. The event will take place on Wednesday, April 30, 2014 and will be held outside the Montoya Building on Northern’s Espanola Campus.

APRIL 30, 2014
3PM—OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Are you an Engineering Student looking for a Scholarship?

!This Is For You!

The “PEARL” Engineering Scholarship Program Fall 2014
(NSF Sponsored Program: Pathways for Engineering: Access to Resources for Learning)

1. The DEADLINE for scholarship applications for COLLEGE Students is Friday, April 4, 2014, 5:00 p.m. (no exceptions). The DEADLINE for scholarship applications for HIGH SCHOOL Students is Friday, June 6, 2014, 5:00 p.m. (no exceptions).

2. Refer to criteria below for eligibility requirements.

3. Refer to the application document for the list of the supporting documents needed. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

4. Application should be delivered to Marsha Gallegos (marsha@nnmc.edu). Only hard copy applications will be accepted.

5. The COLLEGE student recipients will be announced on Monday, May 26, 2014. The HIGH SCHOOL recipients will be announced on Wednesday, June 25, 2014.

6. If you have any questions about the application, please contact Dr. Ivan Lopez (ilopez@nnmc.edu), Dr. Jorge Crichigno (jcrichigno@nnmc.edu) or Dr. Ashis Nandy (ashis@nnmc.edu)

Award Types:

- Tuition Scholarships (up to $2500),
- Living stipend ($2500),
- Combination (tuition up to $2500 + $2500 living stipend).

Scholarships will be provided based on financial need. Academic performance criteria will be used mainly to select the recipients.

Criteria for Eligibility:

1. Applicant must be a US citizen, national of the US, an alien admitted as a refugee, or an alien lawfully admitted to the US for permanent residence. Proof will be required if applicant is awarded a scholarship (passport, birth certificate, etc.)

2. Applicant must be a declared full-time* student in an Engineering Bachelor Program: Information Engineering Technology or Mechanical Engineering.

3. Applicant must have PASSED at least two of the following courses:
   a. If the student is in the Information Engineering Technology Program:
      i. Introduction to Engineering (ENGR 110)
      ii. Computer Programming (EECE 152L)
      iii. Computer Networks I (EECE 132)
      iv. Introductory Math for Engineering Applications (ENGR 120)
   b. If the student is in the Mechanical Engineering Program:
      i. Introduction to Engineering (ENGR 110)
      ii. Introductory Math for Engineering Applications (ENGR 120)
      iii. General Engineering Design (ME 160L)
      iv. Engineering Physics I (PHYS 215L)

4. Applicant must demonstrate financial need. Financial need will be measured by the applicant’s FAFSA.

5. Applicant must demonstrate academic merit. Academic merit will be evaluated based on a minimum GPA of 2.5 and overall academic progress towards the degree completion or previous academic performance. Applicant must NOT have accumulated more than four final grades equal to C-, D+, D, D-, F, or W in engineering courses (GenEd final grades will not count for this purpose and the Selection Committee may waive this requirement if student demonstrates academic performance improvement in the most recent semesters).

* Full-time status may be waived at the moment of the application, but it will be enforced at all times if applicant becomes a scholarship recipient.

 Any student taking these classes in the current semester of the application can still apply, but the scholarship will be contingent to a passing grade in these classes.

Get an application from:
- Hard copy from the Department of Engineering-SERPA 107, or
- Electronic copy by accessing https://sites.google.com/a/nnmc.edu/pearl/.
- Check your e-mail. If you have a Northern e-mail account you should have received an application document.

American Indian Student Organization

AISO is an active club whose mission is to work to increase representation of American Indian student population on Northern New Mexico College campus by enhancing the support of the American Indian student’s educational experiences through culturally relevant activities that foster unity and perpetuate individual tribal traditions and customs. We operate out of the American Indian Center (AD 255) at Northern New Mexico College and invite all students who want to participate in our club activities, to join. The American Indian Center also offers computers, student services, and a knowledgeable staff that are willing to help. We encourage students to utilize these services available to them. There are also opportunities to learn about American Indian culture, meet new fellow students and have fun participating in different activities on and off campus.

Native American Mentoring Initiative Call For Volunteers

We are looking for Native American volunteers (from any tribe) to be Big Brothers and Big Sisters to local youth.

Be a part of helping a youth in your community change their life for the better, forever. The commitment is simple: a minimum of one year mentoring your “Little”, and spending time with your “Little” at least twice a month.

If you are interested, please contact Kenna Chavarria: kenna.chavarria@bbbs-nnm.org or 505-699-6267 or Caitlin Cleary: caitlin.cleary@bbbs-nnm.org or 505-614-4199

Our Mentoring Programs Work

Studies prove when youth are matched with a Big Brother or Big Sister for at least one year, the youth is:

- 46% less likely to begin using illicit drugs
- 27% less likely to begin using alcohol
- 52% less likely to skip school
- 33% less likely to hit someone

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northern New Mexico
The New Mexico Governor’s Internship Program is a full-time (paid) program beginning May 27, 2014, and ending August 1, 2014. The program is designed to provide college students with an overview of New Mexico State Government by working closely with state agencies. During the course of this program, students will garner valuable experience working within their fields of study and enhance their appreciation for public service.

One day. Every Person. Our Community

We're counting down to Give Grande New Mexico on May 6, 2014. On this single day of giving, Tewa Women United and the Coalition of Community Foundations of New Mexico and is joining with hundreds of other nonprofit organizations, donors and communities across the country to raise critical funds for local causes, right here in Espanola.

This is an opportunity unlike any other. With access to a national pool of funds that will be used to amplify local donations as well as a national and state media campaign, our community is poised to receive unprecedented levels of support for the causes that people care about.

To make this day a success, we need your help. You can give online at www.givegrandenm.org (it's fast, easy and secure), and we'd love it if you can help spread the word to your networks. On that day you will be able to see for yourself what Tewa Women United is raising in real time and you can see what is being raised across the state!

Conference Theme: “Desterrados: Stories of Exile, Displacement & Making Home”
Bi-Annual Conference – October 10-11, 2014
Northern New Mexico College, El Rito Campus

The second bi-annual Historias de Nuevo México/Histories of New Mexico conference recognizes the complex ways in which New Mexicans connect to and think about the multiple concepts of what it means to have a homeland. This year’s conference theme: “Desterrados: Stories of Exile, Displacement & Making Home” – is an effort to honor and acknowledge the importance of (re)membering the people, stories, and places that contribute to our understanding of what it means to “make home.” Cultural geographer, Daniel Arreola, helps us to understand connection to a homeland as simultaneously discontinuous, continuous and emerging. It’s not just about physical mapping, but the embodiment of cultural and historic perspectives that define and re-define our connections to home.

The Historias de Nuevo Mexico welcomes proposals that ruminate on stories of exile, displacement, continuity and making home, broadly defined. This is an interdisciplinary historical conference that examines the multiple histories of New Mexico. We invite scholars from any concerned discipline and from the community at large to help us examine our Nuevomexicana/o querencia. As the practice of history is ultimately a collective effort to be shared and created in a common space, this conference will merge the spheres of academic and community scholarship. We will convene at one of New Mexico’s oldest institutions of higher education, the El Rito Campus of Northern New Mexico College in El Rito, NM.

We also welcome proposals that address the following areas:

El Río Arriba y El Río Abajo
150th Anniversary of the Lincoln Pueblo Canes (inter-governmental tribal affairs)
400th Anniversary of the Exile of Don Juan de Oñate from New Mexico
Trails and Commerce – Labor Identities
Global/local: Geopolitical region, critical region and transnationalism in New Mexico
Diasporic Manitos: Leaving and coming back home again
Women and Children in New Mexico
Queer New Mexico
Mexican National Identity in New Mexico
Diversity and Ethnicities in the New Mexico
Peoples, Places, and Cultures
Foods, Traditions, Ceremonies

When submitting a panel or individual paper, include a 250-word abstract that outlines the panel and/or paper. Each proposal, whether individual or part of a session, should include a one-paragraph abstract and a one-page c.v., including address, phone, and email address for each participant. Indicate AV equipment needs, if any. We welcome paper/panel submissions, as well as performances, readings, workshops, roundtable discussions, etc.

Email each submission, with supporting materials, as a single document (PDF) to: nmhistorias@nnmc.edu or send by mail to: Patricia Trujillo, Ph.D, Department of Humanities, Northern New Mexico College, 921 Paseo de Oñate, Española, NM 87532. Deadline June 30, 2014.
