

2.3.e Policies, procedures and practices for managing candidate complaints

Appeals may be made based on academic standing, unfavorable disposition reports, decision by unit regarding policy, issues involving student teaching or field lab placement, and/or an unfavorable background check.

The NNMC COE Appeals Process:

Student submits a written statement to the Field Experience and Placement Office detailing his/her reason(s) for the appeal with evidence supporting the appeal and the action he/her seeks

The NNMC COE Appeals Committee meets and makes a decision based on evidence provided by student (letter)

Decision is made available via email/letter to the candidate by the Dean or Field Experience and Placement Office

*copy is placed in student file