Candidate uses technology to communicate effectively with parents, colleagues, school administration and college supervisors.

Candidate demonstrates willingness to work in collaboration with instructors, mentors, and colleagues by creating and maintaining relationships of mutual respect.

Reflections, both in writing and oral, demonstrate candidate research into viable alternatives to their own current practice.

Reflections, both in writing and oral, demonstrate candidate willingness to consider possible changes in practice.

Displays knowledge of cultural heritage of groups or individuals within the class as a whole.

Diversity

Understands, respects, and values the history of and values of community and brings relevance to classroom.

Communicates to parents and community members reporting on student progress, important events, and school activities.

Arranges room and moves in it to ensure awareness of student behavior.

Demonstrates knowledge of students' various learning styles.

Provides time and accurate feedback.

Teaching

Instruction

Uses formative assessment results to for intervention plans.

Uses assessment results to plan for individual and groups of students.

Instructional goals are assessed through plan.

Demonstrates the use of assessment software to organize assessment data and displays these data in various ways to inform instruction.

Lesson plan demonstrate understanding of sequence, scope, expectations, standards-based instruction, and assessing progress.

Uses formative assessment results to for intervention plans.

Assessment standards are clearly and clearly communicated.

Instructional goals are assessed through plan.

Lesson plan demonstrate understanding of sequence, scope, expectations, standards-based instruction, and assessing progress.

Uses strategies such as pre/post assessments to determine needs and progress.

Uses assessment results to plan for individual and groups of students.

Assessment standards are clearly and clearly communicated.

Instructional goals are assessed through plan.

Lesson plan demonstrate understanding of sequence, scope, expectations, standards-based instruction, and assessing progress.
[1] BA