

Associate of Arts PUEBLO INDIAN STUDIES

This program is committed to broadening your knowledge in the histories, languages, culture, art, and contemporary situations of Pueblo Indian nations and peoples. It is designed to protect the integrity and identity of the Pueblo populations of New Mexico and Arizona, and to create a learning environment conducive to critical and creative thought. It not only stresses sound academic preparation in the classroom but also encourages you to interact and conduct research with Pueblo Indian governments, organizations, and communities, with whom Northern continues to form strong partnerships.

Completion of this program will give you a foundation for degrees in the social sciences, intercultural and interdisciplinary studies and for employment in Pueblo Indian enterprises, including Pueblo Indian government offices, casinos, schools, health clinics, etc.
