
By Josephine Velasquez
VALLEY CONSTRUCTION — Men labor under the long "V" neck of a cement-pouring apparatus at the construction site in the new Espanola municipal complex. The $1.8 million facility, to include city offices and a modern jail, is scheduled for completion in late August. The building is located immediately north of the Luce Civic Center in west Espanola.