

Course Number Course Name	ART 170 Photography I
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Credits (1 Theory; 2 Studio)
Catalog Description	You will learn how to use a 35mm camera. You will also learn basic film exposure, film development, and printing of film. (3, 1T+2S)
Student Learning Outcomes of the course	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate how to operate and control correctly, 35mm film cameras 2. Be knowledgeable in the correct methods for processing film and making traditional prints 3. Understand advanced composition and lighting techniques 4. Provide an overview of the history and contemporary practitioners of the medium 5. Research, discuss, and analyze advanced photographic ideas
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	ART 170 Photography learning objectives align with the following NNMC College Wide Goal: Communication - Students will express ideas coherently through oral communication and speak appropriately for various audiences and situations. Photography Critiques Assignment will be used to assess students' progress in meeting this goals. Information Competency and Research -Students will demonstrate proficiency in the use of current technology and innovation. Use of cameras and understanding the processes for developing film will be used to assess students' progress in meeting this goal.