

NORTHERN NEW MEXICO COLLEGE

Course Number Course Name	ART 235 Watercolor
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Credits (1 Theory;2 Studio)
Catalog Course Description	This course studies the transparent and opaque watercolor media, with emphasis on creative expression and techniques involving varied subject matter.
Student Learning Outcomes/ Objectives/ Competencies of the Course	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate the ability to recognize watercolor's unique characteristics with regard to technique, handling and process 2. Achieve a competent level of knowledge and control of wet media through a planned series of technical exercises and assignments 3. Identify and apply the terms and vocabulary of watercolor 4. Expand working knowledge of the elements of art, particularly color interaction and texture 5. Achieve a degree of proficiency in the use of the tools, paper, pigments and other materials needed for success in watercolor
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	ART 235 Watercolor learning objectives align with the following NNMC College Wide Goal: Communication - Students will present ideas and information effectively for specific purposes through oral and written statements: Individual and Group Critiques will be used to assess students' progress in meeting this goals. Critical Thinking - Ability to think critically through analytical, inventive and creative means: Students will present a problem solving plan to assess students' progress in meeting this goal. Student and instructor will negotiate course of study that involves appropriate number of paintings/hours.