

SYLLABUS: ENG 111

Course Number Course Name	111 ENGLISH COMPOSITION I
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Theory
Catalog Course Description	In this course students will develop reading and writing skills that will help with the writing required in their fields of study and other personal and professional contexts. They will learn to analyze the rhetorical context of any writing task and compose with purpose, audience, and genre in mind. Students will reflect on their own writing processes, learn to workshop drafts with other writers, and practice techniques for writing, revising, and editing. Prerequisite: ENG 109N, or adequate score on Course Placement Evaluation. (3, 3T+0S)
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • develop the skills necessary to succeed in college, including evaluating, analyzing, and synthesizing sources and perspectives • plan and organize a written essay • use effective strategies to persuade, inform, and engage • identify and correct sentence structure problems, usage problems, and minor errors • effectively refer to and quote from other texts in your writing
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	ENG 111 addresses the college-wide Student Learning Outcome of Communication. The Final Essay will be used to assess students' progress on this outcome.