

SYLLABUS TEMPLATE

Course Number	HIST 220
Course Name	Southwestern Women's History
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Theory
Catalog Course Description	You will explore women's involvement in Southwestern history, including politics, economics, and culture. (3, 3T+0S)
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	By the end of the class, students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explain fundamental concepts in the interdisciplinary field of Women's Studies 2. Compare and contrast various feminist theories, especially as they relate to aspects of southwestern women's history.
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learning objectives alignment with the following NNMC College Wide Goal: Information Literacy It will be assessed through reading responses, in class discussions, and a term paper on a selected historical person in Southwester American history.