

SYLLABUS: SPAN 102

Course Number Course Name	102 SPANISH II
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Theory
Catalog Course Description	Continuation of SPAN 101. Prerequisite: SPAN 101. (4, 4T+0S) Meets New Mexico Lower Division General Education Core Curriculum (NMCCN SPAN 1124)
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Acquire Spanish vocabulary for basic exchanges in a Spanish-speaking country.</li> <li>2. Acquire skill with Spanish grammar, particularly verbs in the present tense.</li> <li>3. Develop intercultural communication skills to communicate more effectively across the lines of cultural differences.</li> <li>4. Comprehend the role that diversity plays in a complex society, thereby becoming more sensitive to other cultures and attaining a better awareness and understanding of one's own culture.</li> <li>5. Demonstrate skill with Spanish in the context of the contemporary Spanish-speaking world and its culture,</li> </ol>
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	N/A