

SYLLABUS: ENG 109N

Course Number Course Name	109N ACCELERATED BASIC COMPOSITION II
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Theory
Catalog Course Description	This course prepares students for college-level composition by engaging them in the writing process and focusing on the rhetorical skills necessary to write focused, clearly organized, well-supported, and grammatically correct essays. Students will critically read texts and incorporate ideas from sources to develop and support an arguable thesis. This will be accomplished by practicing the research skills of summarizing, paraphrasing, and quoting, using MLA format. This accelerated course has a Co-requisite of English 111 and is designed to support student's successful completion of the objectives of English 111. Prerequisite: English 108N, or adequate score on Course Placement Evaluation. Co-Requisites: ENG 111 Composition I and FYE 101 First Year Experience (3, 3T+0S)
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	In this course students will learn to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• master the basic skills of organizing and developing essays and feel confident moving beyond and building on those skills</li> <li>• expand their vocabulary and be able to understand and express their thoughts about college-level readings</li> <li>• become more independent writers, to edit and revise essays on their own</li> <li>• consistently work at the level expected of English 111 students and meet the course objectives for that class</li> <li>• successfully complete all the assignments for English 111</li> </ul>
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	N/A