

HUM 281 SYLLABUS

Course Number	HUM 281
Course Name	Spirit of Place, Native Senses of Place
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 Theory
Catalog Course Description	You will examine the meaning of place in your life and its particular importance to understanding Native identity and culture. You will focus on how to relate place with examples of how Native writers, poets, artists, storytellers, and other performers convey a “sense” or “spirit” of place in their work. Cross-listed as HUM 381. Prerequisites: PIS 200 and ENG 111. (Fall, Spring) (3, 3T+0S)
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	Student Learning Outcomes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To examine the meaning of place in your life</li> <li>2. To describe the meaning of place and its particular importance to understanding Native identity and culture</li> <li>3. To focus on how to relate place with examples of how Native writers, poets, artists, storytellers, and other performers convey a “sense” or “spirit” of place in their work</li> </ol>
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	The Student Learning objectives will align with Cultural Competence .