

SYLLABUS TEMPLATE

| | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Course Number Course Name | PSY 285 CRISIS INTERVENTION |
| Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits) | (3, 3T+0S) Theory |
| Catalog Course Description | Advanced techniques for intervention in crisis situations, including skills of assessment, active listening, focused exploration, action planning, termination and treatment of planning; reviews major situations that create crisis. |
| Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course | Upon completion of the course students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe and list the advanced techniques for intervention in crisis situations 2. Use skills of assessment in crisis situations 3. Practice active listening as applicable to crisis situations 4. Engage in focused exploration and action planning in crisis situations 5. Move to termination and treatment of planning for crisis situations 6. Compare and contrast the major situations that create crisis. |
| College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes | This course fits into the University-wide competencies 03 Communication and 04 technology and research. 03 Communication is measured by the preparation of the student to engage in assessment of the levels of crisis presented in crisis situations and respond with effective interventions. 04 technology and research is measured by the exams which will assess the student's ability to use and to apply technical assessment tools. Thus, this course aligns with the College Wide Competencies of Communication and Research. |