CALLING ALL NEW MEXICO WRITERS & ARTISTS

TRICKSTER 2020 will focus on work about borders. From the time we are born to the time we draw our last breath, we spend our lives crossing borders or being limited or blocked by them. We invite you to explore the theme of borders, whether physical, emotional, or spiritual and are waiting to celebrate your talent!

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES  Trickster is a literary journal published yearly by Northern New Mexico College. We are looking for unpublished poetry, fiction, nonfiction, artwork, and any combination therein. The landscape and cultures of northern New Mexico shape our perspective, but we’re excited to accept original work about our current theme. We’re looking for work that moves, surprises, maybe even changes shape before our eyes. We want what we weren’t expecting. Sneak up on us. We dare you.

- Prose should not exceed 5,000 words
- Poetry submissions should be limited to 3–5 poems.
- Multiple submissions (such as more than one poem or flash fiction piece) should be attached as one document.
- Please attach your work as a .doc or .rtf file and email to: trickster@nnmc.edu.
- Attach artwork to your email as a high-resolution (300ppi) jpg, tif or pdf.
- Include a 50-word bio, separately, in third-person voice.
- All pages should be numbered.
- We read all submissions anonymously, so please include your name, address, and email address only in the body of the email, in addition to the title of work(s). No identifying information should appear on the manuscript.
- Simultaneous submissions accepted, but please let us know immediately if work is accepted elsewhere.
- All contributors will receive one copy of the journal.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE:  FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2020

Thank you for your interest in Trickster. We’re anxiously awaiting your work!
