

PLBT 1000 SYLLABUS

Course Number	PLBT 1000
Course Name	OSHA 10 for the Construction Industry
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	1 (1 T)
Catalog Course Description	This course provides basic safety, health and education training for construction workers. Training is provided in the recognition, avoidance, abatement and prevention of safety and health hazards in workplaces in the construction industry. It also provides information on the employer's responsibilities, workers' rights and how to file a complaint. It also trains apprentices in the proper use and care of hand and power tools. Pre-requisites: None
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	Student Learning Outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Apply safety in the workplace and home life</li> <li>• Communicate effectively with coworkers and team</li> <li>• Integrate technology for task completion</li> <li>• Demonstrate cooperative teamwork skills</li> <li>• Think critically and creatively</li> <li>• Demonstrate responsible work ethics</li> </ul>
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes	College Wide Student Learning Outcomes: Communication Critical Thought