

SYLLABUS TEMPLATE

| | |
|--|--|
| Course Number Course Name | HSCI 1103 Introduction to Health Care Professions |
| Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits) | 3T(3, 3T +0L) |
| Catalog Course Description | This course is for students who are interested in a career in health care or health related field. You will be introduced to a variety of health care professions, determine the educational path required for your chosen field, and explore the personal qualities and professional skills essential for all health care providers. |
| Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify the required education, training, legal requirements, typical work responsibilities, and employment opportunities for a variety of health care career occupations. 2. Explore the personal qualities, professional skills, and values necessary for success as a health care professional. 3. Identify essential workplace skills for health care professionals. |
| College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes (General education courses only) | NA |
| Program Student Learning Outcomes measured | The Program Student Learning Outcomes assessed in this course are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand the scope of professional career opportunities available in today's health care economy. 2. Demonstrate knowledge of the essential workplace skills and professional attributes necessary for success in the healthcare field. The tools used to measure these outcome is the Final Exam |