

SYLLABUS TEMPLATE

Course Number Course Name	NURS 4401
Credit Value (Breakdown of theory and lab credits)	3 (3T, 0L)
Catalog Course Description	The Theory of Integral Nursing and Holistic Nursing Theories are explored. The concept of praxis is introduced. Florence Nightingale's legacy and philosophical foundation are included. Students develop skills related to concepts such as self-awareness, self-care, relationship-centered care, nurse as environment, and reflective practice. The use of conscious intention is emphasized.
Student Learning Outcomes/Objectives /Competencies of the Course	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Compare and contrast holistic nursing theories that serve as the foundation for integral nursing. 2. Describe the Theory of Integral Nursing. 3. Interpret and use information relevant to professional nursing care according to a holistic/integral theoretical framework. 4. Describe praxis. 5. Describe integrative nursing practice. 6. Demonstrate beginning skills in conscious use of intention, self-awareness, reflective practice, relationship-centered care, therapeutic use of self. 7. Develop self-care practices as a component of integral holistic nursing care.
College-Wide Student Learning Outcomes (General Education courses only)	NA
Program Student Learning Outcomes measured	The Program Student Learning Outcome that is assessed for this course is: #1. Use the Theory of Integral Nursing and the American Holistic Nurses Association and the American Nurses Association Holistic Nursing Scope and Standards of Practice to provide integral and holistic nursing care in a variety of settings. The course assessment tool (assignment) used to assess this Program-Wide Student Learning Outcome is the Theory of Integral Nursing and Standards of Holistic Nursing Practice Presentation assignment.