The Northern New Mexico College Trades program has partnered with the New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions and the Southwest Regional Council of Carpenters to offer FREE Carpentry Training Camps to prepare participants to be job-ready for expanding opportunities in the construction trades. Carpenters are critical to today's construction industry, responsible for upwards of 80 percent of most projects. ■ Through 40 hours of in-person and online classes—including hands-on lab instruction—participants will learn basic carpentry skills, become OSHA 10 Safety certified and receive coaching to determine their pathway to a career in carpentry. Tools & materials provided, but students must wear suitable work boots and attire.

OPEN TO THOSE RECEIVING UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE OR DISLOCATED WORKERS

JOB PLACEMENT ASSISTANCE UPON COMPLETION
