

NORTHERN NEW MEXICO COLLEGE STUDENT COURSE EVALUATION SCHEDULE FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-23

Administration: The student course evaluation will be administered by Institutional Research at the end of the 8-week courses and 16-week courses. The instruments will be provided to department chairs to distribute to their respective faculty in order to post on Blackboard. The course evaluations will be open for student feedback for a 2-week period for 16-week courses. The course evaluations will be open for student feedback for a 1-week period for 8-week courses. For the 2022-23 school year the survey schedule is as follows.

Results: Results will be provided in pdf form via google docs. Each instructor will receive a copy of their evaluation as well as their supervisor. The evaluations will be divided by department and each department folder will be shared with the provost.